Saint Anna

Saint Anna: Jesus his grandmother does not appear in the bible. Yet she's an important medieval saint. She's usually portrayed with her daughter and grandson.

Anna is the patron saint of furniture designers, tailors, pregnant women and singles looking for a partner.

Anna belongs to the old centre of Amsterdam with dozens of monasteries at the time surrounding the Catholic "oude kerk". During the reform the monasteries were shut down (after 1578), de old churches reformend and clandestine churches were born. But saint Anna remained for ever named after in the "Sint-Annestraat" and "Sint-Annedwarsstraat" and since 2011 in restaurant Anna.
